

You people have gotten to the point where you don't even try to hide your dealings with power grabbing "Big Business". Your employment and salaries are by and from the U. S. Government, which for the most part is funded by taxes from the average citizen. The establishment of the FCC was initially to guard and protect the citizenry from organized media manipulation and abuses caused by monopolies. Your new proposals are diametrically opposed to the very practices you were employed to prevent. As with all bureaucracies, you are being polluted by the people you are hired to regulate. In the old days this was called, "sleeping with the enemy". Now days, it is "gettin' by and gettin' mine!" Get back to basics and do your Job!
